Chamber Names Lance Kinzer a Pro-Jobs Legislator

Topeka, Kan. (June 28, 2007) – The Kansas Chamber of Commerce has named Representative Lance Kinzer as a Pro-Jobs Legislator for the 2007 Legislative Session.

“Representative Kinzer and all of The Chamber’s Pro-Jobs Legislators have distinguished themselves through votes and actions supporting the tenets of free enterprise in order to move Kansas towards becoming the best state in America to do business,” said Kansas Chamber Interim CEO Terry Leatherman.

“Representative Kinzer has demonstrated a pro-business approach to public policy decisions as well as a behind-the-scenes leadership approach to improving the Kansas business climate,” Leatherman added.

“These Pro-Jobs Kansas Legislators are absolutely vital to the many lobbying successes that The Chamber has achieved for business this year, specifically to lower overall business taxes and Unemployment Compensation taxes,” Leatherman said.

“Pro-Jobs Legislators are critically important to the state’s business community as together we work to advance a pro-growth agenda that will make Kansas the best place in America to do business. We appreciate the hard work of Representative Lance Kinzer to grow jobs, the economy, and to move Kansas forward,” he added.

*The Kansas Chamber, with headquarters in Topeka, is the statewide business advocacy group moving Kansas towards becoming the best state in America to do business.
